Foodstock A Success

Roger Marietta, Associate Professor of Political Science, reports that Foodstock '09 was a huge success— thanks to the support of many! Here are the numbers:

- More than $500 in cash from the sale of T-shirts and the bake sale (proceeds will be donated to the Food Bank of SW Georgia)
- Six barrels of food for the Food Bank
- Five truckloads of other canned food with the strong support of the Athletic Department which filled one of those giant 4' x 4' boxes

The truckloads were distributed to St. Clare's Soup Kitchen, which is operated by St. Theresa's Catholic Church; St. Paul's Soup Kitchen; the Salvation Army Shelter; the Albany Rescue Mission; Faith Community Outreach Center; and Food Bank in Cordele.

Thanks to the Art Department and John DiMino for painting the banners and signs. Thanks to the Plant Ops staff for the electrical work, setup, and cleanup. Thanks to the Darton Community for their Servant Leadership all around. Thanks to the bands who played for free!

"The Chosen" won the "battle" with 387 cans donated; followed by "Thick Ankle Nancy" in second; and "Unbroken" in third.

Consolidation Forum Nov. 17

An Albany City/County Consolidation Forum will be held at Darton College on Tuesday, Nov. 17, at 6 p.m. in B101.

City and county commissioners will discuss the possible merger and take questions from the public. The meeting is open and free to the public. The public is encouraged to attend and voice opinions and concerns to city and county leaders.

This event is sponsored by D.I.R.T. – a non-party affiliated political club at Darton College. Refreshments will be provided at 5 p.m.

For more questions or information, call Roger Marietta at (229) 317-6808.

Holiday Market Nov. 17 and 18

The Darton Holiday Market will be held Nov. 17 and 18 from 10 a.m.–6 p.m.

The market, which is for the Darton community and is also open to the public, will feature vendors selling a range of arts and crafts. Located in the center of campus around the gazebo/pond area, the market will also sell refreshments.

Proceeds will benefit the Darton College Foundation for student scholarships. The holiday market is offered by Darton's Business and Social Science divisions.

For more information, call (229) 317-6560.

Fine Arts Convocation Nov. 24

Darton College's Fine Arts Convocation will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 24, at 11 a.m. in the Darton Theatre and will feature the many different aspects of the Darton College performing arts and visual arts.

The Darton Players will perform an excerpt from The Gifts of the Magi under the direction of Theatre Director Deborah Liss-Green.

The Vocal Ensembles will perform, and a multimedia presentation of student and faculty images will be presented by the art department.

The dance program will present several dance pieces – featuring modern, ballet, and a dance collaboration with other fine arts departments, as well as a solo by Dance Director Jennifer DeBritton.

The Darton College Jazz Ensemble will perform jazz standards, and additional arts will be presented.

Admission to convocation is free, and the public is invited to attend. For more information, please call (229) 317-6554.
